Sale of Glencore Stake in Sagittarius Mines Inc and Tampakan Project

Following Glencore plc's ("Glencore") disposal of its shares in Indophil Resources NL ("Indophil"), a subsidiary of Glencore today executed a share sale agreement ("SSA") with an affiliate of Indophil for the sale of its entire remaining interest in the Tampakan Project in the Philippines ("Tampakan").

The SSA includes a number of conditions precedent that are required to be obtained prior to 30 June 2015 (subject to mutual agreement to extend such date). Details of the sale will be made available following certain administrative steps after the completion date. Glencore will provide a further update when the transaction outlined by the SSA is completed.

In January 2015, a subsidiary of Glencore disposed of its shares in Indophil Resources NL (which holds a 37.5% interest in the Class A shares of Sagittarius Mines Inc. and is the owner of Tampakan) to Alsons Prime Investments Corporation pursuant to a scheme of arrangement in Australia.
